

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

MOM Contact: Bob Mohelnitzky, (608) 826-3408

MOM Announces New Board of Directors

February 19, Middleton, WI-- MOM is pleased to announce that the following community members have joined its Board of Directors:

- Stephen DiTullio, Managing Partner- DeWitt Ross & Stevens Law Firm
- James Blystone, Director of Marketing Culver Franchising System, Inc.
- Brad Mueller, Principal and Executive Vice President-Practice Development at Clifton Gunderson Wealth Management.
- Harold Zimmick, Lead Pastor at Asbury United Methodist Church
- Kathy Anderson, Community Service Council member from West Middleton Lutheran Church

These new Board members join the current Board which includes:

- Mike Kutchin, Board President
- Tim Carey, Board Vice President, The Carey Group
- Mike Gasser, Board Treasurer, TDS Telecommunication Corporation
- Ruth Dumesic, Board Secretary, SVA Certified Public Accountants,
- Don Johnson, Superintendent, Middleton Cross Plains Area School District
- Jim Hartlieb, ,First Business Bank
- Pauline Kussart, H.E., Stark Agency
- Bernie Lange, The Renschler Company

MOM is a local 501(c) 3 charitable organization providing social service relief programs to residents of Middleton and West Madison, including a food pantry serving over 300 families each month, a clothing closet, financial aid for housing and utility assistance, a variety of seasonally-based community initiatives, and a Project for Older People (POP) program focused on enhancing the independence of local seniors. These programs are supported by community stakeholders with annual cash and in-kind contributions of over $1.2 million and volunteers providing over 15,000 annual hours of service.

#